BETWEEN

Mr Test Landlord

London
E4 5HI

AND

Tenant 1 (Lead Tenant)
Tenant 2
Tenant 3
Tenant 4

(hereinafter referred to as 'the Landlord' of the one part, which expression includes the person for the time being entitled to the reversion immediately expectant on the Tenancy hereby created);

(hereinafter referred to as 'the Tenant' of the other part, and if more than one the liability of each under this agreement shall be joint and several)

BY THIS AGREEMENT the Landlord lets and the Tenant takes all of the building known as

123 Sample Street
London
AB1 2CD

(hereinafter referred to as 'the Property') together with the Fixtures, Fittings and Furniture therein (as more particularly set out in the Inventory annexed hereto and signed by both parties) for a term certain of 12 months ('the Term') from 1st January 2016 to 31st December 2016 at the rent of £500.00 every calendar month and on the Special and General Terms and Conditions set out in the following pages of this Agreement.

THE TENANT agrees to pay the Rent in advance by standing order in the following instalments namely a first payment of £500.00 on the signature of this Agreement and thereafter the sum of £500.00 every calendar month commencing on the 1st day of February 2016.

If any rent or other money payable by the Tenant to the Landlord under the provisions hereof shall not be paid within fourteen days of the day on which it became due the same shall be payable with interest thereon at the rate of four per centum per annum above the base minimum lending rate of the Bank of England for the time being in force calculated on a day to day basis from the day upon which it became due down to the date of payment.

THE TENANT also agrees to pay to the Landlord on the signature of this Agreement a deposit ('the Deposit') of £600.00 as security against the failure by the Tenant to make good on demand by the Landlord and at the Tenant's expense any damage by the Tenant to the Property or to any Fixtures, Fittings, Furnishings and Effects and as security against any expense, arrears of rent or other nuisance occasioned to the Landlord by the failure of the Tenant to behave in a tenant-like manner or to observe the Special General Terms and Conditions of this Agreement.

The Tenant shall follow the procedures of the relevant tenancy deposit protection scheme to seek recovery of the deposit or to resolve a dispute over recovery of all or part of the deposit.

Specifically the Tenant hereby agrees not to use any part of the deposit in lieu of rent.

A. SPECIAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Occupation only by the tenant

The Tenant hereby agrees with the Landlord not to assign underlet charge or part with or share possession or occupation of the Property or any part thereof.

2. Vacation of the Property before the end of the Term

FIXED TERM

The Tenant hereby agrees with the Landlord that if the Property is permanently vacated by the Tenant at the Tenant's own request before the last day of the Term, the Tenant shall remain liable to pay to the Landlord the full unpaid balance of the rent receivable by the Landlord had this Agreement run for the full Term. The Tenant is not liable to pay rent if the Property is re-let to another party within this period.

3. Statutory Council Taxes or other local taxes payable by the Tenant (except where specified under additional clauses)

Payment of any Council Taxes or other local taxes that may from time to time be brought into force due by the Tenant to the Local Authority in accordance with the Statutes and arising from the occupation of the Property by the Tenant pursuant to this Agreement shall be the direct responsibility of the Tenant. The Tenant hereby undertakes with the Landlord to produce on demand by the Landlord all relevant receipts for the payment of any such Charges and/or Taxes issued to the Tenant by the Billing Authority.

4. Forfeiture – Right of re-entry

Important: If either party to this agreement are unsure of their rights or require further clarification of this clause they should consult a solicitor or their local Citizens Advice Bureau.

The Protection from Eviction Act 1977 gives Tenants protection against arbitrary or immediate termination of their rights of occupation and the law restricts a Landlord's rights, except in certain circumstances, to evict from, or prevent a Tenant from living in, premises subject to an existing tenancy agreement without first obtaining a court order.

For the Landlord to commence legal proceedings to repossess the premises based on a breach of the tenancy (where the Tenant has failed to remedy the breach in good time), which might result in the court evicting the Tenant or issuing a court order terminating the tenancy earlier than might otherwise be lawful, the law requires that the tenancy agreement contains a Forfeiture clause, sometimes referred to as a Right of Re-entry. For the avoidance of doubt: In order to exercise his legal rights under this clause a Landlord will first need to obtain a court order. If at any time the rent, or any part of the rent, shall remain unpaid for 14 days after becoming due, whether formally demanded or not, or if any major agreement or major obligation on the Tenant's part is not complied with, or if any of the circumstances mentioned in the following Grounds:

Ground 8. (that both at the time of notice of the intention to commence proceedings and at the time of the court proceedings there is (a) at least eight weeks rent unpaid where rent is payable weekly or fortnightly; (b) at least two months rent is unpaid if rent is payable monthly; (c) at least one quarters rent is more than three months in arrears if rent is payable quarterly; (d) at least three months rent is more than three months in arrears if rent is payable yearly), as set out in Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988 [as amended by the Housing Act 1996]),

Ground 10. (that there is some rent outstanding both at the time of notice of the intention to commence proceedings and at the time of the court proceedings),

Ground 11. (that the tenant has persistently delayed paying rent which has become lawfully due),

Ground 12. (that one or more of the obligations of the tenancy has been broken or not performed),

Ground 13. (that the condition of the premises or the common parts has deteriorated because of the behaviour of the tenant, or any other person living there),

Ground 14. (that the Tenant or someone living or visiting the premises has been guilty of conduct which is, or is likely to cause, a nuisance or annoyance to neighbours; or, that a person residing or visiting the premises has been convicted of using the premises, or allowing it to be used, for immoral or illegal purposes or has committed an arrestable offence in, or in the locality of, the premises),

Ground 15. (that the condition of the furniture has deteriorated because it has been ill-treated by the Tenant or someone living at the premises),

Ground 17. (that the Landlord was induced to grant the tenancy by a false statement made knowingly or recklessly by either the Tenant or a person acting at the Tenant's instigation), as set out in Part II of Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988 (as amended by the Housing Act 1996) shall arise, then the Landlord may re-enter the property and the tenancy shall be terminated. Any such action will not restrict or limit any other legal rights which the Landlord may have in pursuing the Tenant for breaches of the Tenant's obligations under this agreement.

B. LANDLORD'S UNDERTAKINGS

1. The Landlord hereby agrees with the Tenant that the Tenant paying the Rent and performing all the agreements by the Tenant herein contained may quietly possess and enjoy the Property during the term of the Tenancy without any unlawful interruption from the Landlord or any person rightfully claiming under or in trust for that party.
2. The Landlord agrees that he shall register the deposit with one of the Government-authorised tenancy deposit protection schemes ('the relevant scheme') and shall inform the Tenant of the details of the relevant scheme and the procedures for recovery of the deposit at the end of the tenancy, including the procedures for resolving a dispute, within 14 days of receiving the deposit from the Tenant. The Landlord shall also confirm to the Tenant the amount of deposit paid, the address of the property to which the tenancy relates, and the contact details of Landlord and Tenant. He shall inform the Tenant of the circumstances in which all or part of the deposit may be retained by the Landlord in relation to the terms of this tenancy agreement.
3. The Landlord agrees that as soon as practicable after the determination of the tenancy (howsoever the same may be determined) the Landlord shall account to the Tenant for such part of the deposit as the Landlord shall deem necessary to enable the Landlord as at the date of such determination to make good any breach or non-compliance by the Tenant with his obligations hereunder and to pay all costs, charges and expenses incurred in connection therewith. The Landlord shall account to the Tenant for any balance of such sum. The Landlord shall follow the procedures of the relevant scheme to seek recovery of the deposit or to resolve a dispute over recovery of all or part of the deposit.
